THE WESTBETH LEGACY

Since 1970, Westbeth Center for the Arts (“Westbeth”) has provided affordable space to a range of artists, cultural organizations, and commercial tenants in accordance with Westbeth’s mission. The 650,000 SF complex of 10 connected buildings is in Manhattan’s West Village, one of the most desirable neighborhoods in the city both residential and commercial uses.

Situated amongst the tree-lined, cobblestoned street of this high income and walkable neighborhood, the Westbeth campus is home to a vibrant community of artists spanning multiple generations. Created to provide affordable housing for artists and their families, Westbeth has long provided opportunities for creative expression and cultural engagement. As a tenant here you will become submerged within a place of inspiration and artistic vision and enjoy easy access to the longstanding community. A short walk away from the heart of the West Village and the Meatpacking District, the campus provides tenants with unparalleled access to the city’s highest end boutique district.

Campus Highlights

- Walkability to Transit, Parks, and Commercial Hubs, Cultural attractions like Pier 51, Little Island, Whitney Museum, The West Village's Wine and Food Hub
- High Average Household Income
- Unique Creative Community
- Existing On Site Community Gallery
- Individually Landmarked Campus of Historic Significance
- Charming Details Such As Gorgeous Barrel-Vaulted Ceilings
- Floor-to-Ceiling Windows Facing Interior Courtyard
